Family Court of First Circuit Offers Free Divorce Law Seminar

The Family Court of the First Circuit is sponsoring a free informational program, "Divorce Law in Hawai'i," from 12 noon to 1 p.m., Thursday, May 23, 2002, in the Supreme Court conference room, located on the second floor of Ali'iolani Hale, 417 South King Street.

William C. Darrah, who has practiced divorce law in Hawai'i for more than 25 years, will give an overview of custody and visitation, division of property, child support, alimony, and other matters relating to divorce. Attendees will also learn where to read more about divorce law in Hawai'i, how the legal process works in this state, and where to get Family Court divorce forms and how to use them.

Darrah, who specializes in financially complex matrimonial matters, is editor of the monthly Journal of Hawai'i Family Law and editor of the annual Hawai'i Divorce Manual. A graduate of New York University School of Law, he has been certified by the American Bar Association as a divorce mediator. Since 1979, Darrah has helped with many Family Court divorce education programs offered to the public, including The Divorce Experience and Kids First.

The "Divorce Law in Hawai'i" program will be presented monthly throughout 2002 in the Supreme Court conference room. For more information, contact the First Circuit Court Operations Office at (808) 539-4448.
